

Get to know your Strategy 2020: our roadmap for the future

1

Build an inclusive, diverse and active humanitarian movement based on voluntary service

2.5 million people, reflecting the diversity of our community, take voluntary humanitarian action with Australian Red Cross to help others

50% (of 2.5 million) are self organising and leveraging Australian Red Cross knowledge, expertise and evidence to advocate for and help others

Australians trust and respect Australian Red Cross – as measured by public surveys

2

Save lives, build resilient communities and support people in disasters

3 million Australians are equipped to be prepared for and recover from disasters

There has been a four-fold national increase in investment (government, corporate, other) in disaster risk reduction and community resilience

Key partners in 14 Asia-Pacific countries can demonstrate increased capacity to support communities prepare for, respond to and recover from disasters and humanitarian crises

Australian Red Cross is responding to disasters and other significant emergencies 100% of the time

3

Prevent and alleviate human suffering in times of war and conflict and promote non violence and peace

Australian attitudes and behaviours strongly reflect humanitarian values based on survey responses

100% of Australian organisations working in conflict zones have implemented an IHL action plan

Australian Red Cross has contributed directly to the Movement's increased impact in migration, disaster risk reduction, ensuring respect for IHL, the elimination of nuclear weapons and health care in danger

4

Improve the wellbeing of those experiencing extreme vulnerability

500,000 Australians are connected to and supported by the community to overcome their deep social exclusion

The wellbeing of young Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples has improved by 20%

Migrants in transition have their humanitarian needs met and are participating in and included in Australian society

There has been a 50% improvement in community determined indicators in up to 20 of the most vulnerable communities in Australia

Australian governments are directing into justice reinvestment at least 50% of savings delivered by a 10% reduction in Australian prison numbers

5

Maintain a strong, innovative, sustainable and accountable organisation capable of achieving our humanitarian goals

All Red Cross people are empowered, engaged and accountable for their contribution to our humanitarian goals

[80 cents]* in every dollar raised is going directly to humanitarian outcomes and impacts

There are diversified multi-year funding streams in place with no single funding source exceeding 50%

Through an annual report, we have been transparent with the public each year about what we have achieved, where we have failed and the impact we have delivered

6

Provision of a safe, secure and cost effective supply of blood and related products

To deliver leading edge outcomes we will produce products and services that are fit for purpose and meet stakeholders and customer needs

To be at the leading edge of performance we will make the best use of funding by delivering lean operations and a more efficient blood sector

To deliver a leading edge national network we will maximise the impact of our infrastructure and skills
