In reading the breakdown of your regions you seem to be using actual suburb locations based on mining locations. It would be more helpful overall to use the Regional Development Australia breakdown of regions. This would mean plotting your current findings into those regions. Happy to provide more information

Michelle Blicavs
Wollongong City Council