Brief submission

Most people can't afford Private Health Insurance especially when the costs increase so regularly, people will stop going to see doctors if it becomes costly which in turn will be more a drain on the system with people hospitalized, prevention is better, less expensive in the long run, people will go to ER's which will put an extra strin on the Health System ! This generation has lost free education don't take easily accessable health care too !

Julie Roberts