Healthcare should be in hands of government and not private companies. We are all human beings and paying taxes for these services and we are entitled to get some goodies back and not finish in the greedy private hands.

Milena Ostrovska