

the loss of the telephone land line in our area{ penarie} would a mistake. there is little or no mobile phone coverage and if the power goes down there is only the land line coverage available. The land line need to be maintained to support our community and the emergency services . the satellite service can not be relied on. if in an emergency such as a bush fire if the loss of power is a very real possibility.