

Dear Productivity Commission,

I am now a disabled pensioner, but worked in building and manufacturing industries for many years.

Job losses would hurt the entire country.

If we do not make things then we have to import everything, that means high costs, high cost of living.

Just make it happen we don't want to lose our iconic Holden name.

Kind Regards,
Max Watson