

Dear Productivity Commission,

married, 2 adult daughters, home owner, no mortgage, retired.

no connection with auto industry.

loss of trade skills, no ability in time of war to manufacture defence equipment.

a manufacturing industry is essential for training engineering and trade apprentices.

Kind Regards,
Howard Trevethan