

Dear Productivity Commission,

I am a full time worker with no family or mortgage.

It doesn't effect me directly but I am concerned of the impact this would have on other families and whole communities.

We can't let this industry slip through our fingers, it will benefit our future economy and future generations of Australians.

The Government needs to invest in this industry.

Kind Regards,
Danielle Dalkie