

Dear Productivity Commission,

I am a family man with two small children, I am an engineer at Toyota port Melbourne.

My family relies on me for my income from Toyota.

It will wipe out manufacturing and engineering in Australia.

The auto industry shutting down will destroy my life and thousands of other lives for many years to come.

Kind Regards,
ADAM MCGROTTY