

Submission

Identity is retained through Australian literature. Our culture is precious and although challenged by a global society where commercialism and technology can homogenize us all, our books retain the uniqueness of who we are. Parallel Importation of Books threatens the viability of our books, therefore threatens our culture.

Please vote to retain the status quo for our children

Susanne Gervay