

I would like to protest strongly about the parallel imports of books.

I can see that if this happens Australian books will be restricted, and the access that our children have to books which define our own country will be withdrawn.

Please do not let this happen.

Sincerely,

Moya Simons
Australian author

9 April 2009