

Dear Commissioner,

I am writing to voice my objection to the proposed changes to the present parallel importing regime. I feel that any changes will be detrimental to the Australian book industry, to authors and publishers alike. I urge you keep the regime as it is.

On a further related matter I received an email from Dymocks Booklover club inviting me to sign their petition to you to change the law on parallel importing. I was disturbed at this use/ misuse of their customer base to support their own agenda.

I am not an author, nor do I work in the publishing industry. I am a librarian and am very concerned about the fragility of Australian publishing. I urge you not to change the existing system.

Yours sincerely,

Jill Quin
