

The coalition for cheaper books is simply a mouthpeice to disguise the greed of Big W, Woolworths, Coles, K Mart, Target and Dymocks increasing their profits and market domination at the expense of struggling Australian Authors.

My current book will take over one year to be published, with my previous one, five years. Just as well we write for love, not money!

Please don't roll over in favour of the conglomerates when the PC files its recommendations on June 30.

Yours faithfully,

John Bunworth.
