

Inquiry conduct and participants

This paper describes the stakeholder consultation process undertaken for the Inquiry and lists the organisations and individuals who have participated.

Inquiry terms of reference

The terms of reference for the inquiry was received from the Treasurer on 7 February 2022 and is viewable on the inquiry website. The inquiry was advertised in The Australian on the 14 February 2022

Engagement with inquiry participants

The Commission released a call for submissions and comments paper on 21 February 2022. In response, 74 submissions and 2 brief comments were received and are viewable on the inquiry website. An update on the inquiry progress was released on 7 April 2022.

Throughout the course of the inquiry to date, we have had separate discussions with businesses, business groups, government agencies, academics and other individuals.

What next?

You are invited to examine this interim report – and forthcoming focus area interim reports for this inquiry — and comment on them by written submission to the Productivity Commission, preferably in electronic format, by 21 October 2022.

Public hearing dates and venues

Dates and venues will be listed on the inquiry website once confirmed.

Throughout the coming months, the Commission will release a number of focus area interim reports, hold further discussions with participants (including public hearings), and review additional submissions received before preparing the inquiry final report. The final report will be forwarded to the Government in February 2023.
